Join SWC for Lively Online Conversations with People Who Understand Hearing Loss

If you are experiencing hearing loss, SayWhatClub (SWC) is the place to connect with others who have similar experiences and can relate to what you are going through. SayWhatClub is a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization run by volunteers, and subscription is free.

Do You Say “What?”

Are you a person dealing with hearing loss? If you are hard of hearing, deaf or late-deafened, or have a friend or family member struggling with hearing loss, SayWhatClub (SWC) might be just what you are looking for.

What is the SWC?

SayWhatClub is an online group of circa 400 late-deafened, hard of hearing and Deaf adults and other interested people who provide support and encouragement to each other through e-mail. Our goal is to provide a friendly, good-humored place to exchange conversation, information, advice, deep thoughts, humor, tall tales, and chit-chat. Participants get to know each other and develop an online “community feeling.”

Currently SayWhatClub runs nine mailing lists, five “general” mailing lists, two permanent “focused topic” lists: “CI” for people having or considering a Cochlear Implant, “Meniere’s” for those with Meniere’s disease, and “Explore,” a general discussion list for those who want to interact with people outside their main list.

We are scattered worldwide and depend on electronic mail and the Internet to communicate with one another. At various times, we’ve had members living in Switzerland, Sweden, South Africa, Israel, Denmark, England, New Zealand, Finland, India, Canada, Italy, Japan, United States and other countries.

Many SWCers periodically meet in small conventions and other social gatherings. SWCers have met all over the world.
